NOTICE

On October 3, 2024, the Central Cabinet of India granted classical language status to Bengali and Assamese in recognition of their ancient heritage. This is a matter of great pride for us. In this regard, the Assam government has directed that from November 3 to November 9, a week of Language Pride (Bhasha Gaurav Saptaho) will be celebrated with honor, focusing on the promotion and spread of Bengali and Assamese, along with all other languages spoken in Assam.

In line with the Assam government's directive, Karimganj College has organized a discussion session to observe this week. Prof. Dr. Bishwatosh Choudhury from the Department of Bengali, Assam University, will be the key speaker for the program. Dr. Govind Sarma, Associate Professor in the Department of Sanskrit, will deliver a talk on the ancient language of Sanskrit. Dr. Sujit Tewari from the Department of Physics will give a lecture in Hindi, and Ms. Rani Duarah from the Department of English will speak on the Assamese language.

In accordance with the Assam government's directive for the observance of Language Pride Week, the Bengali Department of Karimganj College has organized several competitions for students. Students from any department of Karimganj College are eligible to
