

KARIMGANJ COLLEGE

NOTICE

DATE: 17-12-2025

Students of Karimganj College are strictly warned that if anyone of them is caught writing or spitting on classroom walls or any other walls within the College premises, he/she will be subjected to a fine up to ₹2,000/- (Two Thousand) only and immediate suspension from the College.

Additionally, as the use of single-use plastics is banned inside the College campus, any student found carrying or using single-use plastic items e.g. packaged drinking water and cold drink bottles, take-away containers etc. will have to pay a fine of ₹1000/- and suspension from the College for a duration determined by the Principal.

As the campus is under continuous CCTV surveillance, any violations of the above rules will be immediately identified, and strict action will be initiated.

All students are advised to maintain discipline and respect the college property. Let us work together to keep our classrooms clean and conducive to learning.
